Jan Arie van Barneveld, CEO of Brunel International: "The results in the third quarter have met our expectations, both in turnover and profitability growth. We were able to achieve an overall growth figure of 24% with profitability increasing by 38%. We succeed in executing the strategy of improving the profitability while continuing growth.

Brunel has a strong balance sheet and a healthy cash position which are two key elements in achieving our set targets of significant growth in 2008. We are pleased to confirm our Ebit estimation for the full year of over Euro 62 million."
